The Law of Attraction or Repulsion?

There are many misunderstandings concerning the spiritual “Law of Attraction” because of language, subjectivity, karma, and a lack of distinction between the physical and the spiritual domains. In the physical atomic world opposites attract and the same holds true for magnetic fields. A north pole of a magnet is always attracted to the south pole of another magnet. Yet, there is no such thing as a magnet with only one pole. Each magnet has two poles, north and south. Thus, two identical magnets, which are the same in everyway, can only be attracted to each other’s opposite poles. Yet, they are both the alike! They only appear opposite by there actions.

This is why the Chinese symbol for the Tao has both Yin (female) and Yang (male) in it. Yet, each Yang has a little Yin, and each Yin has a little Yang.

One could argue that rather than opposites, what we have here are inversions of the each other. This reinforces the absolute idea that there is only one presence that appears to be polarized by the perception of the brain and lower ego. There is only about 1% difference between DNA in all human beings, are we really that different?

The Spiritual Law of Attraction

When you leave the physical world and enter the realm of the psyche, soul, or spirit, the laws of attraction change. In the physical world, the opposites attract, or at least seem to. In the mental spiritual world, like attracts like. And lets face it; the spiritual determines and is the causes of the physical so this is where we have to work in order to change our lives externally.

The Spiritual Law of Attraction is closer to the physical law of farming in regards to results. If you plant corn, you get corn. If you think and feel negative thoughts all day long, you tend to attract negative events around you. Thus, like begets like or like attracts like.

Therefore, the Law of Attraction behaves differently on different planes of existence.

The Hammer and the Nail

If the hammer hits the nail, then the nail is the receptor of the hammer. This means that the hammer is the male by relationship to the nail. The nail of course is female by virtue of its relationship to the hammer. However, the nail is male or yang by the relationship it has to the wooden board it is penetrating. Starting from the Godhead and working our way down, this Yin-Yang relationship goes on and on all the way down to subatomic particles. It was Helena Petrovna Blavatsky, the great occultist, who first brought this concept to my mind.

The Secret Mission of Lucifer

It is our destiny to become enlightened beings. We will next become adepts, then masters, then avatars ourselves until we evolve all the way to the office of the Cosmic Logos Itself. Once we are there, what will we do next? All that is then left is absolute transcendence to the unconditioned eternal THAT which has no attribute or description. In fact, according to Blavatsky, the Cosmic Logos Himself, cannot see beyond the veil of the Absolute's own Substance to view THAT which cannot be named.

At the beginning of this universe, there was a new being who is now holding the current office of Cosmic Logos. We know that being by the name of Lucifer in Western mystery traditions. This Cosmic Logos being at the pinnacle of evolution chose to sacrifice himself so that another may arise deservingly to the same position. This other is known as the Christ in Western mystery traditions and is the Solar Logos of our system.

Likewise, the Christ entered humanities evolution and joined himself to the Earth evolution forever. He sacrificed his development for our sake. He joined us to our own Christ Consciousness. Lucifer divided himself three ways. The first third remained in the office of the Cosmic Logos; the other two thirds rebelled against the cosmic evolution by resisting humanities further evolution so we could develop from this resistance. This allows the Christ to sacrifice himself to help humanity overcome the Luciferic planned rebellion.

It is said by Rudolph Steiner that one third of the Luciferic rebellion has been redeemed by the sacrifice of the Christ, thus, leaving the last one third of Luciferic forces to test and develop humanity the way gravity resists and develops our physical muscles.

The twist to this whole thing is that in the end, humanity will redeem the remaining one third of Luciferic forces by the power of compassion towards them. We will love our enemies as we reach Christ consciousness as a race. As we connect with the Christ Consciousness which is our destiny, we bring the lost light back to the lost forces of Lucifer and redeem them. We become the conduit that reconnects them back to the Cosmic Logos.

Thus, the two forces, which seem locked in opposition, are really only one presence of a Divine Plan that is endless and leads to everlasting joy. They are not opposites in the end. In this regard, the Christ, speaking from a higher understanding of the Law of Attraction and Redemption says in Matthew 4: 43-45.

Ye have heard that it hath been said, Thou shalt love thy neighbor, and hate thine enemy.

But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you;

That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust.
